

C DBHT Messrs Hebblethwaite & Son, Land Agents 1750-1980Historical Background:

Originally named after the founder of the company Thomas Frederick Hebblethwaite, Hebblethwaite's land agency was established in c.1851. Thomas Frederick Hebblethwaite was born in c.1823 and died in 1890 in the Scarborough Registration District at the age of 67. He married Mary Frances Gleadow. At the time of the census in April 1871 he was recorded as being a land agent and land proprietor and was living at 2 Granville Terrace, Beverley Road, with his wife, ten daughters, 2 sons, and four servants. Hebblethwaite's son, William Henry Hebblethwaite born c.1852, later joined his father's business as land agent's clerk.

In an 1851 trade directory Hebblethwaite was recorded as being located at the Post Office buildings, Victoria Terrace, Anlaby Road. Hebblethwaite & Son, land agency was later situated in the Post Office buildings on Whitefriargate. In 1867 both T. F. Hebblethwaite and Hebblethwaite and Patrick, land agents and surveyors are listed in a trade directory as being situated in the Post Office buildings on Whitefriargate.

Hebblethwaite, who acted for the Harrison-Broadleys and several other families, had an annual turnover varying from £46,170 in 1856, to £156,173 in 1873, the year of highest turnover between 1856 and 1880. No resident agent dealt with amounts of that magnitude.

The Hebblethwaite land agency and surveyors company ceased trading in the mid 1980s.

C DBHT/8	Farm Plans The references given to each item correspond to the number of the plan. Numbers that are not listed in this series do not have a plan allocated to it. Unlike documents in other groups within this archive, the documents grouped under this heading did not originally form a single sequence. The original numbering was in several different hands and has produced duplication of some numbers. It seems probable that some items are strays from the miscellaneous tracings of series C DBHT/7. Certainly some of the numbers present here correspond with numbers recorded as missing in the tracings. Nevertheless, the existing numbering has been used in the list with sub-numbers to distinguish items sharing the same number. Items 180-88 were unnumbered and have been given numbers at the end of the sequence.	1870-1925
