

C DIBG

Bricknell Townswomens Guild, Hull

1948-1959

Accession number: 16/44

Historical Background: The first townswomen's guild nationally, was established in 1929. The organisation was originally founded to promote equal citizenship, and when this was achieved, it focused on educating women as citizens.

Custodial history: Passed by a former guild member to Joan Dukes and deposited at the History Centre by her daughter, Lesley Davy in November 2016

Description: Photograph album of activities

Extent: 1 volume

Related material: At C DSTG are the records of the Haworth Evening Townswomens' Guild (1947-1995) and at C DIIM are scrapbooks of the Southcoates Afternoon Townswomens Guild (1959-1991). At U ADU/1 are details of courses run by the University of Hull Department of Adult Education, for townswomen's guilds in the area (1928-1951).

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIBG/1

Photograph album for the Bricknell Townswomens Guild, 1948-1959
Hull
1 volume