

Hull History Centre: Copy letter written by a soldier of the British Expeditionary Force in the First World War

C DIDR Copy letter written by a soldier of the British Expeditionary Force in the First World War 1915

Accession number: 08/25

Historical Background/Biographical Background: Acquired by Ms Debbie Rogerson

Custodial history: Deposited by Ms Debbie Rogerson in May 2008

Description: A copy of letter from a soldier, Len Mortimer of the 148 Brigade, 49 Division, British Expeditionary Force, France, to his parents.

Extent: 1 item

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIDR/1	A copy of letter from a soldier, Len Mortimer serving in France during The First World War to his parents retelling what has been happening to him and his comrades in the trenches. Len was a member of the 148 Brigade, 49 Division, British Expeditionary Force, France. 1 item	6 Jun 1915
----------	---	------------