

C DIGH Photographs taken by Glenn Halsey in his capacity as Building Control Officer for Hull City Council 1990-2004

Accession number: 23/28

Administrative History: Photographs taken by Glenn Halsey in his capacity as Building Control Officer for Hull City Council.

Custodial history: Created as a record of Building Control work undertaken within the City and passed to the History Centre in July 2023

Description: 54 colour photographs of various buildings and areas in Hull including the Waterfront nightclub, the Newland Park Hotel, Boothferry Park, Hull Royal Infirmary (views from the roof), West Park Stadium, Princes Quay shopping centre, Asda (Kingswood) and Queens Gardens (WW2 control bunker)

Extent: 54 items

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIGH/1	Bundle of 9 of Boothferry Park new turnstiles and stand extension 9 items	Jul 1996
C DIGH/2	Bundle of 5 colour photographs West Park Stadium before handover These photographs include West Park Stadium as well as 2 photographs of Boothferry Park when it closed 5 items	2002
C DIGH/3	Bundle of 11 colour photographs of the Newland Park Hotel, Cottingham Road / Old Grey Mare Public House These photographs show the front of the Hotel following completion of the refurbishment into the Old Grey Mare Public House. There are also photographs of the ground floor preventative measures taken to prevent collapse of the building, the first floor looking down to the ground floor and the front window looking out onto Cottingham Road during the refurbishment. 11 items	Nov 1996
C DIGH/4	Bundle of 2 colour photographs of Princes Quay Shopping Centre 2 items	1990s

Hull History Centre: Photographs of Hull 1990-2004

C DIGH/5	Bundle of 2 colour photographs of Hymers College, Hymers Avenue These photographs include the front entrance and lodge as well as the playing fields 2 items	2004
C DIGH/6	Bundle of 3 colour photographs of Queens Gardens WW2 control centre bunker unearthed whilst Gosschalk Solicitor's carpark was being constructed 3 items	1990s
C DIGH/7	1 colour photograph of Asda, Kingswood under construction 1 item	1994-1995
C DIGH/8	Bundle of 3 colour photographs of the Waterfront Hotel/Night Club 3 items	May 1996
C DIGH/9	Bundle of 18 colour photographs showing views from Hull Royal Infirmary roof top prior to the building of a 3 storey extension 18 items	1990s