

C DIHF Apprenticeship indenture of John Feeney 12 Apr 1920

Accession number: 23/34

Biographical Background: John Feeney was born in 1905 down Watson Street, Sutton-on-Hull and worked fifty years at the Hull Daily Mail.

Custodial history: Deposited by John Feeney's daughter in August 2023.

Description: Apprenticeship indenture between John Feeney and The Daily Mail and Hull Times Company Limited. Also includes photograph of John Feeney, possibly around the time of his apprenticeship.

Extent: 2 items/ 0.04 linear meters

Related material: Records relating to freemen and apprentices in Kingston upon Hull (1369-1838) can be found at C BRG and Hull Corporation Apprenticeship Indentures (1686-1695) can be found at C BRK/2/3

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIHF/1	Apprenticeship indenture between John Feeney and The Daily Mail and Hull Times Company Limited. Also includes photograph of John Feeney, possibly around the time of his apprenticeship. Provides details of wages during John Feeney's apprenticeship. 2 items	12 Apr 1920
----------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------