

C DIJF

Miscellaneous items relating to Hull

c.1920s

Accession number: 22/38

Custodial history: Collected and deposited by Mr. John French to the Hull History Centre in November 2022

Description: Includes a notice of invitation to a talk by Capt. Breeds with an exhibit of curios from all parts of the world, dated 14th July; a booklet produced by the Hull City Mission titled 'A woman's work is never done' by Fay Inchfawn; a catalogue of goods produced by Lofthouse and Saltmer Ltd., wholesale and export druggists and manufacturing chemists, Hull, dated January 1923; a photograph of the side chapel in All Saints Church, Margaret Street, Hull; and a wedding photograph of an unknown family.

Extent: 0.05lm

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIJF/1	Catalogue of goods produced by Lofthouse and Saltmer Ltd., wholesale and export druggists and manufacturing chemists, Hull Includes advertisements and illustrations of products 1 item	Jan 1923
C DIJF/2	Booklet produced by the Hull City Mission titled 'A woman's work is never done: A letter to a woman friend' by Fay Inchfawn Fay Inchfawn was the pen name of Mrs. Elizabeth Rebecca Ward 1 item	c.1925
C DIJF/3	Notice of invitation to a talk by Capt. Breeds with an exhibit of curios from all parts of the world Dated 14th July 1 item	c.1920
C DIJF/4	Photograph of side chapel in All Saints Church, Margaret Street, Hull Handwritten notes on back. Furnished in memory of the Walker family by Mary Walker. 1 item	c.1925
C DIJF/5	Wedding photograph of an unknown family 1 item	c.1920