

C DIPD                                  Papers collected and deposited by                                  1928-1992
Alderman Patrick Doyle

Accession numbers: 07/21, 10/77 and 23/23

Historical Background: The papers relating to William Wilberforce were created by the City Of Hull to mark the 150th anniversary of his death and the abolition of the slave trade in Hull. The papers from the Labour Party were created as part of a campaign against the rising influence of the Municipal Association.

Custodial history: The file for the Labour campaign was passed to Patrick Doyle by Councillor Colin Inglis, who had received them in turn from Honorary Alderman John Atkinson in the 1980s. The Wilberforce anniversary items were collected by the Hon Alderman Doyle whilst a councillor for the City.

Extent: 3 bundles

Related material: More information on these activities can be found in local newspapers. The papers for these years are available to view on microfilm at the History Centre.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIPD/1	Papers relating to celebrations to mark the 150th anniversary of the death of William Wilberforce Papers include correspondence relating to events, invitations to events, programmes and black & white photograph of the plaque on Nelson Mandela Gardens 1 bundle	1983
C DIPD/2	Papers relating to a Labour Party Municipal Campaign Poster and a photocopy of a promotional leaflet 1 bundle	c.1933
C DIPD/3	Papers relating to the Labour Party and local elections Includes handbills, mostly from the 1930s, and local election leaflets promoting Labour candidates. Also includes Hull City Labour Party's Manifesto for the 1986 elections and a flier advertising a meeting organised by the clergy of the city centre churches for a debate on hospital trusts and the future of the health service, April 1992. 1 bundle	1928-1992