

C DISC                      Certificates issued to Jack Scotter, RAMC                      1917

Accession number: 14/65

Biographical Background: Jack Scotter was born in 1895 and later joined the St. John's Ambulance Corps. During the World War 1 he was posted to the Royal Army Medical Corps, (RAMC). He was serving on the hospital ship, H.M.H.S. Egypt when it crossed the Equator. As it was his first Equator crossing, he was involved in a traditional ceremony to mark the occasion.

Custodial history: Issued to Jack Scotter in the crossing the Equator Ceremony and deposited by his daughter, Muriel Harrop

Description: Certificates for crossing the Equator

Extent: 2 items

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DISC/1	Notice to attend the Court of King Neptune issued to Jack Scotter on H.M.H.S. Egypt 1 item	17 Aug 1917
C DISC/2	Certificate of attendance issued to Jack Scotter on H.M.H.S. Egypt on crossing the Equator 1 item	17 Aug 1917