

C DSA Records of the Hull Scots Society of St. Andrew 1910-2015

Historical Background: The Society was formed in 1910 after a group of six Scottish exiles met in a private room in the Guildhall. At its first meeting, 92 people joined the society. It provided meetings and functions for Scots in Hull, with sons, daughters, wives or husbands of Scots also eligible for membership. At its heyday, in 1953, it had 470 members, which resulted in waiting lists for their various events, which included the St. Andrew's Ball, the Hogmanay Party and the Burns Supper. It also held ceilidhs, a dance club and published a magazine, the Hull Scot, annually. After over 100 years of activity, the society decided, due to a declining membership, to formally close, which it did at the AGM in May 2015.

Custodial history: Items C DSA/1-216 were deposited by the Society on 17 December 1984; C DSA/217-232 in October 1988 and C DSA/233-239 in December 1990 and C DSA/240-250 were deposited in January 2016.
