

C TCBF Hull Town Council Hull and Barton Ferry Committee 1836-1839

Historical Background: The Hull and Barton Ferry Committee was established in January 1836, one of the first committees of the new corporation created after the Municipal Reform Act of 1835. It was to look at ferry provision between the towns, paying particular attention to the lessees of the ferry. After reporting back in October 1839, the committee was dissolved.

Description: Apart from records within the main committee series and any associated reports, there does not appear to be any additional records for the Hull and Barton Ferry Committee

Related Materials: See council minutes in the searchroom which also contain any associated reports

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader