

C TCCD                      Records of the Hull Town Council                      1858-1860
Citadel and Foreshore Committee

Historical Background: This committee was initially called the Garrison and Foreshore Committee but by October 1858 had been renamed the Citadel and Foreshore Committee. It was established by the Town Council in May 1858 in order to investigate the purchase of the ground comprising the garrison and foreshore in Hull. The corporation then became involved in a legal dispute with the Crown over the right to sell the land. The committee appears to have been wound up in December 1861 after the Town Council lost the first stage of its legal battle and it's subsequent decision not to appeal and incur more cost.

Custodial history: Records created as part of the work of the Town Council Citadel and Foreshore Committee and routinely transferred from the Town Clerks Department

Description: Draft minutes, resolutions and reports

Extent: 21 items

Related Materials: The Hull History Centre has many other records relating to the citadel or garrison, which can be located with the Borough records such as the bench books (C BRB) and letters (C BRL), the town's Garrison Committee (C TCM) and records from the Hull Board of Health (C BHH). At U DX/130 are Martin Beckman's records relating to coastal defences whilst at U DX/250 are transcripts of documents for the citadel. A print showing the citadel can be found at C DIEW/1. Other records, such as the Quarter Sessions (C CQ) may also contain useful information. Muster rolls and other documents, such as those relating to appointments, can be found at The National Archives in Kew. Census records will also list those residing in the citadel. Useful reference books within the library include J.H. Hirst's 'The Castle of Kingston Upon Hull' and Howes & Foreman's 'Town & Gun' (1999).

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader
