

C TCFI Hull Town Council Fisheries Committee records 1888-1891

Historical Background: In April 1889 Hull Town Council established the Fisheries Committee to put into force the powers of the Sea Fisheries Regulations Act, 1888, and to take such steps and incur such expenditure as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose. It was wound up after it presented its report to the council in June 1891.

Custodial history: Records created as part of the work of the Fisheries Committee and routinely transferred from the Town Clerks Department

Description: Committee records including regulations, correspondence and memos

Extent: 5 bundles

Related Materials: See council minutes in the searchroom which also contain any associated reports. The Hull History Centre has many other records related to the fishing industry, such as fishing crew agreements (C DPF), trawling companies such as Thomas Hamling (C DBTH) and Hellyer Brothers (C DBHB), and minutes of the North Eastern Sea Fisheries Commission (L639.22) amongst them. Please see our source guide 'Fishing and Associated Records' for more details or search the online catalogue.
