

C WIH

The Icelandic Trust Homes

1946-1990

Accession number: 78/8

Historical Background: Thomas R. Ferens (1847-1930), businessman and philanthropist gave the site and the 12 almshouses on Holderness Road, to the corporation of Hull. An additional 8 more were built near by in 1956. A further 12 flats were built in Staveley Road and 12 in Barham Road in 1953. Between 1998 and 2000 the charity scheme was amalgamated into the Pickering and Ferens Homes.

Custodial history: Deposited by the Pickering and Ferens Homes under the amalgamation scheme through the Town Clerk and Chief Executive's Department

Description: Trust declaration and correspondence

Arrangement: C WIH/1 Foundation of the Trust

Extent: 0.25 box

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C WIH/1	The Foundation of the Trust	1946-1990
	4 items
C WIH/1/1	Declaration of Trust 1 item	31 Dec 1946
C WIH/1/2	Correspondence relating to the site 1 bundle	18 Oct 1945- 28 Aug 1947
C WIH/1/3	Correspondence relating to the erection and formal opening of the homes 1 bundle	1 Apr 1964- 7 Apr 1964
C WIH/1/4	Correspondence 1 bundle	2 Nov 1961- 13 Mar 1990