

C WJC                      Amy Johnson Cup of Courage, records                      1935

Accession number: 16/40

Historical Background: The Amy Johnson Cup of Courage, also known as the Cup of Valour, was created in 1930. It is awarded to any young person from the Hull area, who displays courage of the highest order. The cup was paid for from the gold sovereigns presented to Amy Johnson by school children in Sydney, Australia, after her historic flight.

Custodial history: Transferred by Councillor Sean Chaytor, Right Worshipful Lord Mayor of Kingston upon Hull in 2016

Description: Insurance certificate for the Amy Johnson Cup of Courage

Extent: 1 item

Related material: Articles regarding two children who have been presented with the cup can be found in the Hull Daily Mail, on 24 June 1960 and 17 August 2013. Books such as 'Amy Johnson: Queen of the Air' by Gordon Snell and Alec Gill's 'Amy Johnson: Hessle Road Tomboy', both at reference L.920JOH give additional information on the Cup.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C WJC/1	Insurance certificate for the Amy Johnson Gold Cup for Valour 1 item	21 May 1935
---------	--	-------------