

C WTH                      Thomas Hudson Memorial Homes                      1947-1993

Historical Background: In 1947 several fishing companies gave £3,000 to provide homes, for poor people connected with the fishing industry. They named the houses in memory of Thomas Hudson who died in 1945. Three bungalows were built in 1954 in Coltman Street. They were amalgamated into the Pickering and Ferens Homes between 1998 and 2000.

Custodial history: Deposited by the Pickering and Ferens Homes under the amalgamation scheme through the Town Clerk and Chief Executive's Department

Description: Declaration of trust and correspondence

Arrangement:        C WTH/1 The Foundation of the Trust

Extent: 0.25 box

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C WTH/1	The Foundation of the Trust 4 items	1947-1993
C WTH/1/1	Declaration of Trust 1 item	14 Oct 1947
C WTH/1/2	Correspondence relating to the site 1 bundle	1 Apr 1947- 18 Dec 1967
C WTH/1/3	Correspondence relating to the erection and formal opening of the homes 1 bundle	9 Jun 1952- 14 Apr 1954
C WTH/1/4	Correspondence 1 bundle	27 Sep 1973- 28 Feb 1993