Papers of Arthur Eustace Morgan,
first Principal of University College Hull, 1926-1935

1877-1993

Accession number: 2012/22; 2013/04

Biographical Background:

Arthur Eustace Morgan was born in Bristol on 26 July 1886.

He was officially appointed as the first Principal of the University College of Hull on 18 June 1926 and would continue as the Principal until 1935 when he was succeeded by John H. Nicholson. Hector Hetherington, then Professor of Moral Philosophy at Glasgow University and former Principal of University College, Exeter recommended Morgan for the post of Principal. Morgan had been Hetherington's deputy at Exeter from 1920 to 1923 and had taken part in the process by which Exeter was elevated to University College status. Morgan had also been Publicity Secretary to the Committee for the Furtherance of University Education in the South West for several years and had been a Professor at Sheffield University. [from U DX81]

He spent two years as Principal of McGill University in Montreal, Canada before returning to the UK and working with the Ministry of Labour during the war. He died on 3 February 1972.
