Historical Background/Biographical Background: Crust Todd and Mills was an old established firm, formerly called Shepherd Crust and Todd, with connections in the early nineteenth century to John Lockwood, solicitor. In the late 20th century the firm amalgamated with Sandersons Solicitors of Hull and Beverley.

Custodial history: Transferred in two deposits from the East Riding Record Office in 1974. Donated via Donald Carrick, on the authority of Sandersons Solicitors (successor to Crust, Todd and Mills), June 1999. Further records relating to the Cave Castle estate were purchased in January 2015.

Description: The papers largely comprise estate papers for the East Riding of Yorkshire.

The two deposits have been arranged slightly differently. U DDCV, the larger deposit, has 182 sections on East Riding locations, followed by sections on York, the North Riding and the West Riding, then other counties, Jamaica, a few acts of parliament, bonds and miscellaneous legal documents, wills and eleven sections on East Riding landowning families or individuals. U DDCV2 has 52 sections on East Riding locations, followed immediately by 15 sections on the estate papers of East Riding landowning families and individuals, followed then by sections on other counties, at the end of which are the North and West Ridings, followed by some correspondence and miscellaneous legal documents, wills and a separate section for the records of the East Riding Clergy Charitable Society (1781-1963).

Like the East Riding Clergy Charitable Society, all of the estate owning individuals and families have been separately noticed, the Guide entries for them appearing in their name. Those whose papers include more (e.g. personal papers) than just estate papers are indicated with an asterisk. A list of them is as follows: for U DDCV, the *Cankrien (1615-1850), *Clubley (1798-1857) and *Dealtry families (15th century-1835), *John Conyers Hudson (1631-1860), the *Hutton family (1672-1884), the Reverend *John Hymers (1864-1891), the *Langley family (1650-1816), *General Thomas Marten and his family (1815-1891), the *Muschamp (Stamp) family (1853-1866), *Samuel Richard Radford (1783-1861) and the *Whitaker family (1775-1857); for DDCV2, *Sophia Letitia Barnard (1890-1940), the *Binnington (1633-1938) and *Blanchard families (1799-1835), *Lieutenant General Napier Christie Burton (1809-1832), *Sir George and Lady Duncombe (1873-1935), the Dunning (1759-1915) and *Grimston (1714-1926) families, *Jane Handley (1806-1808), the *Raines (1710-1895), Smith (1723-1952), *Stephenson (1739-1956) and *Strickland-Constable (1810-1917) families, *James Torre (1798-1815), the *Walker family (1835-1936) and John Wardle (1773-1829).

U DDCV/211  Papers of the Clubley family of Beverley  1798-1857
The papers are not estate papers and mostly relate to the local military careers of Thomas Clubley of Beverley and the affairs of his grandson Charles Witty Clubley of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. However, there is an 1839 survey of the estate of Charles Witty Clubley as well as the 1838 probate copy of the will of Thomas Clubley. The remainder of the papers comprise commissions and appointments, letters from the War Office and the Horse Guards, a letter from Lord Fitzroy Somerset of 1846 and an army list for this year.

The papers of John Conyers Hudson comprise mainly personal papers, namely early nineteenth century household accounts and records of investments, yearly diaries for 1836 and then 1838-1860, correspondence starting in the 1810s when Hudson was a clerk with the East India Office, two diaries of his son, Conyers Hudson, some genealogical material, much of it recorded in a book started by Christopher Conyers in 1631 and some inventory material from Low Hall, Brompton, where John Conyers Hudson resided in the later part of his life. Also in the collection are the marriage settlements of John Fothergill and Mary Bacon (1787), John Conyers Hudson and Mary Fothergill (1817) and Joseph Clavell Staddon Slyfield (1824) and the will of Mary Hudson (1820).

  U DDCV/215/27 - 31  Leavening and Acklam
  U DDCV/215/32 - 38  Driffield
  U DDCV/215/39 - 49  Act for sale of part of estates of Richard Langley
  U DDCV/215/50 - 59  Abstracts of Title
The collection comprises estate papers for North Grimston, Acklam, Leavening as well as a bundle of papers for Kendall Farm, Driffield. An abstract of the title of Richard Langley covering estates 1722-1803 indicates that the Langley family owned the manors of North Grimston, Sherburn, Fimber, Leavening and West Heslerton as well as a moiety in the manors of Crosby and Swine Brompton, the manor of Hagthorpe and also of Driffield, the latter including all fairs, markets and tolls for Great Driffield and Little Driffield. Their other estates included Wykeham Abbey, Scaggleshope, Settrington, Acklam, Hutton Cranswick and Riston. They also held the advowson of Wold Newton (Haltemprice).

A number of papers in the collection related to the estates of Richard Langley (d.1817) and they include rentals and accounts for estate improvements. There is some correspondence between Lord Middleton and John and Robert Lockwood, solicitors, as well as the marriage settlements of Ralph Creyke and Jane Langley (1771) and Thomas Thorneide and Christian Waterhouse (1662). Wills are those of Thomas Langley (1722), Richard Langley (1754), Elizabeth Langley (1757) and Boynton Langley (1769).

The papers of Thomas Marten and Caroline Harriet Marten (nee Ellison) comprise mainly family accounts and wills with a large number of papers relating to the military career of Thomas Marten in the Royal Dragoons.

Accounts and financial papers include early nineteenth century records of the Ellison family, a bank book for Thomas Marten 1866-68, accounts for his funeral in 1868 and a household account book for Caroline Marten 1882.

Correspondence in the collection to Thomas Marten is from members of the Royal Dragoons and the Dublin United Services Club and topics include troop organisation in Ireland and Waterloo. Letters to Caroline Harriet Marten are about her property and local families. There is also a little correspondence between Sir George D’Aguiler and Lord Raglan and between the solicitor Thomas Crust and the legatees of the will of Caroline Marten. The collection also contains the marriage settlement of Thomas Marten and Caroline Harriet Ellison (1825) and the wills of Henry Ellison (1831), Thomas Marten (1869) and Caroline Harriet Marten (1880; codicils of 1881 and 1882).

This collection is rich in press cuttings about military affairs, especially the Crimean War. It also contains various documents such as orders, billeting details and mess rules for the Royal Dragoons and a historical record of the 1st Dragoons. Miscellaneous items include a general order for the funeral of the duke of Wellington and a letter to Thomas Marten as bannerel in the funeral about the necessary mourning apparel, as well as invitations to dinner with the duke of Wellington and the earl of Lichfield. There is a bundle of papers concerning the Chartist riots in Sheffield 1839-1840 as well as the colonel's epaulettes and two pairs of shoe buckles.

This small collection of papers relating to the affairs (especially financial) of Samuel Richard Radford of Alvaston, Derby and his brother Edward Radford comprises largely correspondence, especially letters concerning the estate of John Borough of Derby 1826-1829, letters about investments in railway stock and about 50 letters from Edward Radford to his brother about his financial and family affairs. There are also some circular letters to shareholders of Scottish Central Railway dated 1849-1850. The collection also contains the marriage settlements of Joseph Bainbrigge and Hannah Harrison (1789) and Edward Radford and Eliza Diana Childers (1820) and the wills of Sarah Childers (1816) and James Bligh (1833). There is a bundle of accounts and other documents relating to the sale/purchase of the manor of Alvaston in county Derby in 1814 (presumably by Samuel Richard Radford).

U DDCV/219   Papers of the Whitaker family
1775-1857
The papers are twofold: family financial arrangements such as mortgages and marriage settlements and the naval certificates and commissions of Thomas Whitaker 1803-1815. The marriage settlements are those of Thomas Whitaker and Frances Pearson (1779), Thomas Whitaker and Mary Dawson (1783) and Robert Whitaker and Sophia Lowe Thornton Duesbery (1856). The papers probably became part of the Crust Todd and Mills archive through this marriage to a member of the Duesbery family, lawyers of Beverley.

Papers of Mrs Sophia Letitia Barnard of South Cave 1890 - 1940
The papers of Sophia Letitia Barnard represent the last papers related to the Barnard estates of South Cave, including Cave Castle, their family home (earlier papers of the South Cave estates of the Barnard family are catalogued as DDBA). Sophia Barnard had placed her affairs into the hands of Messrs. Crust, Todd and Mills, including the management of her estates on behalf of her daughter after she died.

The papers include an 1890 plan of South Cave, tenancy agreements with the local girls' and boys' schools, tenancy agreements for farms, houses and allotments, a photograph of the memorial stone of Sophia Letitia Barnard and her husband as well as the account for death duties paid on her estate 1910-1913, papers related to the settlement of her will, a 1932 letter from Horsley Smith and Co about shooting rights and poaching at Cave Castle, the 1925 sale catalogue of Cave Castle and the 1938 sale catalogues of miniatures, paintings, porcelain, furniture, carpets, old English and foreign silver and the estate itself. There are a few papers including title deeds, an inventory and a sale catalogue of Ursula Barnard's house in Bournemouth to which she retired in 1925.

Further papers in this series were purchased at auction in 2014 and comprise U DDCV2/54/100-103.

Papers relating to a case in the High Court, Chancery Division
The court case was heard in the High Court of Justice Chancery Division in 1924-1925. The plaintiffs were Sir Robert Charles Ochiltrie Stuart, Claude George Cole Hamilton, William Henry Todd and William Todd, the trustees of Sophia Barnard's will, and the defendants were Ursula Mary Florence Barnard, Joseph Henry Delpratt (and his executors after his death in 1924) and Legal and General Assurance Society Limited. The case sought to clarify elements of Sophia Barnard's will, particularly in respect of whether the trustees required Ursula Barnard's consent to dispose of property, as the trustees wished to let or sell Cave Castle and sell many of its contents. The house had been unoccupied for some time and was beginning to fall into disrepair. In April 1925 an order was made granting the trustees' request.
1908-1925

This series also contains several documents relating to an earlier case to appoint a receiver in the case of Ursula Barnard, prior to the trustees' application to the High Court to sell Cave Court and its contents.

Many of the documents in this subseries were created by or for Long & Gardiner, a London firm of solicitors who acted as agents for Crust, Todd & Mills. 1 bundle

U DDCV2/62 Papers of William Raines and family of Wyton 1710 - 1892
This small collection comprises the estate and some personal papers of William Raines (1800-1874).

Estate papers include a number of sales and purchases in the Sutton, Cottingham, Sproughtley and Wyton (near Bilton) areas of the East Riding carried out between 1852 and 1853 and the 1886 sale documents for Wyton Lodge. Other papers in the collection include brief genealogical notes of the 1790s and bundles of receipts and vouchers for 1848-55 and 1861-71. There are a few family parish certificates: the marriage certificate of William Raines and Ann Tennyson (1788); the death certificate of William Raines (1798); the baptism certificate of William Raines (1771).

Marriage settlement documents can also be found for John Dalton and Catherine Smith 1844 and there are 40 letters about this settlement spanning 1859-73, as well as some letters pleading for money from Catherine's son.

The wills in the collection are those of William Burton (1764); William Raines (1873; epitome); John Raines (1895); T D Barron (1814) and William Meadley (1817).

Miscellaneous material in the collection includes a doggerel poem about a trip to London, an 1873 cheque book, an 1874 prescription, some papers of the Buckels family, the Ripley Free School Estate Act of 1851 and some letters about the building of a Raines family memorial window in

Papers of the Walker family of Sand Hutton and Beverley
The family owned Sand Hutton Hall and land in Springhead, Cottingham, which was sold for suburban development in Hull. They also owned The Hall in Beverley. There are title deeds related to their property as well as papers relating to improvements at Sand Hutton Hall 1885-1893. There is an inventory of The Hall, Beverley dated 1883 and an inventory of silver plate at Sand Hutton for the same year. The papers also contain an account book, with details of rents and investments 1854-1880, as well as 1880s bank books and cheque books. There is a list of servants at Sand Hutton 1884. There are details of stocks and shares held by the family and the cash book of the executors of Captain Edwyn Walker 1919-1924.

The earliest papers in the collection relate to the parliamentary career of James Walker from 1835. Family scrapbooks and newspaper cuttings provide genealogical information and the memorial book put together for Admiral Charles Francis Walker provides detailed information extracted from his letters of the involvement of the English navy in Macao, Hong Kong and China in the 1860s. Details of ships and their engagements are given in chronological order.

Marriage settlements in the collection are those of: James Robert Walker and Louisa Susan Marlborough Heron Maxwell (1863); Edwyn Walker and Elizabeth Bethell (1874); Richard...
Frederick Meysey-Thompson and Charlotte Walker (1879); Oswald Bethell Walker and Marcia Mansell (1910). Wills in the collection are those of: James Robert Walker (1885); Harold Walker (1931); Jane Walker (1854).

Papers relating to the Hall Watt family of Bishop Burton

Documents in this subcollection mainly relate to the Hall Watt family, and in particular Alvery Digby Hall Watt, who used Crust, Todd and Mills as his solicitors, and the case of Watt v Creyke (later Hall v Creyke), which was administered through the Court of Chancery. See series level descriptions for more details.

U DDCV3/5, Records relating to Caroline Botterill deceased, has no clear link to the rest of the records in this subcollection or to the Hall Watt family. The reason for the inclusion of the records in this accession is unknown.

Watt v Creyke, later Hall v Creyke

This large series contains documents relating to the High Court case of Watt v Creyke, later Hall v Creyke. This arose out of a feature of Richard Watt's (d.1855) will: for two generations his property was shared between his sons and grandsons as life interests, but then reverted to the children of the eldest son of his eldest daughter. As the heir to whom the estate reverted was a minor child at the time, the estate was held in trust and administered via the Chancery Division of the High Court.

No original order was discernible among the papers when they were deposited, so for ease of locating items they have been divided into subseries: Early records, relating to the life of Richard Watt the elder (d. 1807); records relating to the Hall v Creyke/Watt v Creyke High Court case; deeds, rentals, admissions and surrenders; and accounts and financial records.

Within series documents are mostly arranged chronologically.

Where multiple copies of documents were deposited only one has been retained.

Augusta Campbell Dury

Documents relating to the death and estate of Augusta Campbell Dury, nee Hunter. Mme Dury married, in 1878, Jules Dury, a French army officer, and lived in France for the rest of her life. The Dury family had two children, Adele and Richard. Augusta Dury died on Christmas Day 1936.

Augusta Dury had a long-standing business relationship and friendship with J Willis Mills of Crust, Todd and Mills. Alverey Digby Hall Watt was made one of the trustees of her marriage settlement in 1925, and remained the sole trustee after the death of the other trustee, Harold Robinson Pease, in 1937, some six weeks after Mme Dury's death.

Augusta Dury died without a will and this, combined with her having lived in France, seems to have generated a large amount of paperwork. The papers in this series relate almost entirely to the period from her death on Christmas Day 1936 to late 1938, as the securities and other assets from her marriage settlement were dealt with. Ultimately, securities worth £6000 were held in trust to provide an income for Richard Dury, while the rest of the settlement's assets passed to Adele Dury.

The correspondence within this series includes letters between J Willis Mills and Adele Dury which contain, as well as business, personal news and opinions.
