

U DX154 Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers 1863-1928
(Hull District)

Historical Background:

The Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers formed from several small trade associations, with there being 29 members at the opening of the branch in 1863. The Hull branch met at Terry Street in Hull with the aim of being a self-help society. It later amalgamated with the Union of Construction, Allied Trades and Technicians.

Custodial history:

Deposited by the Union of Construction, Allied Trades and Technicians, London, in 1983

Description:

Minutes books for the Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers (Hull District) covering the period 1863-1928 containing branch and special committee meetings

Extent:

3 volumes

Related material:

Records of the Hull 4th Branch of the Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers [Ref C DUW]

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX154/1	Minute Book of the Hull District of the Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers 1 volume	16 May 1863- 22 Apr 1871
U DX154/2	Minute Book of the Hull District of the Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers Includes considerable coverage and discussion of the General Strike (May 1926) with a few loose papers 1 volume	21 Feb 1924- 11 Jun 1926
U DX154/3	Minute Book of the Hull District of the Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers Includes a few loose typescript reports 1 volume	17 Jun 1926- 19 Jul 1928