

U DX207

Hull Daily Mail* Poetry Competition

1978

Custodial history:

Donated by the 'Hull Daily Mail' on 1st May 1990

Description:

Correspondence between W.I. Sneyd, editor, 'Hull Daily Mail', and Philip Larkin about a poetry competition organised by the newspaper

Extent: 3 items

Related material:

The main focus of the literary manuscripts in the University archives is post Second World War English poetry, but there is also good coverage of other literary and dramatic work, including plays, works for television and radio, novels, literary criticism, biography, autobiography and journalism. There are also complementary archives for a number of poetry editors, publishers and magazines, theatres and local literary organisations.

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX207/1	Correspondence between W.I. Sneyd, editor, 'Hull Daily Mail', and Philip Larkin Comprising: a) Copy. TL. W.I. Sneyd, editor, 'Hull Daily Mail', to Philip Larkin, regarding a poetry competition. He also congratulates Larkin on being made a Companion of Literature. With enclosure: press cutting from the 'Hull Daily Mail' announcing the results of the competition, 21 July 1978 b) TLS. Reply of Philip Larkin to the above, 24 Jul 1978 3 items	21-24 Jul 1978
-----------	---	----------------