

U DX297

Writings relating to Brunei

1990-1991

Historical Background:

AVM Horton was formerly an Honorary Fellow of the Centre for South East Asian Studies at the University of Hull and a prolific author on Brunei.

Custodial history:

Donated by AVM Horton, via the Centre for South East Asian Studies, University of Hull, during the academic year 1991/92

Description:

This small collection comprises five volumes of Horton's academic research and writing on Brunei

Extent: 5 volumes

Related material:

Material also relating to Brunei in the Hull University Archives:

Papers of Robert Nicholl [U DX199]

File containing photocopies of articles and reviews (some on Brunei) [U DRB/20/1]

Papers of Dr David Kenneth Bassett [U DBA/2]

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX297/1	Essays in Brunei history, AVM Horton (vols. 1, 2 & 4), being collected reviews, articles, transcripts and bibliography 3 volumes	Apr 1990– Mar 1991
U DX297/2	Supplementary bibliography: II. To appear in: Essays in Brunei history (volume II), AVM Horton 1 volume	Aug 1990
U DX297/3	Brunei studies (no.1), AVM Horton, being collected articles, reviews, glossaries and bibliography 1 volume	Mar 1991