

U DX42

Hunmanby Title Deed

1692

Custodial history:

Donated by the British Museum, 21 Sep 1954. Photocopy received by The British Museum under export licensing regulations, the original having been exported to the United States of America.

Description:

Negative photocopy of a title deed relating to Hunmanby received via The British Museum under export licensing regulations, the original having been exported to the United States of America

Extent: 1 item

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

U DX42/1

Title Deed

23 Nov 1692

Negative photocopy. Lease for a year: at peppercorn rent: Mary Buck, widow of Robert B. of Flotmanby esq., and his son and heir John B. of the same to Robert B. of London, younger brother of J.B. Rectory of Attwick alias Attenwicke; and farm there in tenure of Charles Wetherell and William Hardwick. Close called the Earle Ings (16ac.) in Hunmanby To lead to a Release. Witn. Ann Lutton, Geo. Constable, Will. Jennings
1 item