

U DX82

Papers of Frederick Brent Grotrian and Sir Herbert Brent Grotrian

1881-1929

Historical Background:

Frederick Brent Grotrian was born in 1838, he was Conservative MP for Hull East, 1886-1892, and at one time owned the Hull Daily Mail. He died on 8 April 1905.

His son, Sir Herbert Brent Grotrian, was born in 1886 and sat as Conservative MP for Hull South West, 1924-1929. The Grotrian Baronetcy, of Leighton Buzzard in Bedfordshire was created on 28 June 1934. He died on 28 October 1951.

Custodial history:

Donated by Sir John Grotrian, Lavant, May 1972

Description:

Newspaper cuttings, election addresses and other material relating to general elections contested by Fredrick Brent Grotrian and his son Herbert Brent Grotrian

Extent: 48 items

Related material:

Album of press cuttings relating to Fredrick B. Grotrian MP for East Hull and Local political and related matters, 1886-1890 [Ref C DFBG/1]

Hull Daily Mail [C DBHM]

Access conditions:

Access will be granted to any accredited reader

Hull History Centre: Papers of Frederick Brent Grotrian and Sir Herbert Brent Grotrian

U DX82/1	'Speech of Fred. B. Grotrian Esq., J.P. on Free Trade and the Tariff Question'. Pamphlet reprinted from 'Hull Packet' 1 item	13 Jul 1881
U DX82/2	Portrait of F.B. Grotrian, presented with 'The Craftsman' 1 item	Oct 1885
U DX82/3	Election address of Fred B. Grotrian to the electors of East Hull clearly stating that he is a unionist candidate 1 item	22 Jun 1886
U DX82/4	Election cards of Fredrick B. Grotrian Some carry illustrations of shipping, fish, horse-riding and rugby alongside text 'Grotrian This Time' and one with the Union Jack and 'Vote for Grotrian Morality and Religion' 11 items	[1886-1892]
U DX82/5	Volume of press cuttings relating to the General Election in the East Hull Division (and in other Hull and East Riding Divisions) includes election cards and some pamphlets 1 volume	1892
U DX82/6	Bank book of H.B. Grotrian: election account 1 volume	Oct-Dec 1922
U DX82/7	Volume of press cuttings relating to General Elections in the South West Hull Division including some photographs that accompanied the articles 1 volume	Oct 1922- Oct 1924
U DX82/8	Volume of press cuttings relating to General Election in the South West Hull Division including some photographs that accompanied the articles 1 volume	Oct-Nov 1922
U DX82/9	Volume of press cuttings relating to General Election in the South West Hull Division including some photographs that accompanied the articles 1 volume	Nov 1922
U DX82/10	'South Hull Election Stakes' Poster showing four candidates on horses with the slogan 'Back the Winner by voting for David Pughe' (the Lloyd George candidate). The reverse contains a hand-drawn sketch of a man digging with a shovel. 1 item	1922

Hull History Centre: Papers of Frederick Brent Grotrian and Sir Herbert Brent Grotrian

U DX82/11	Elections cards and addresses of Herbert B. Grotrian Including cartoon 'Why hustle is necessary' showing a chef cooking the Government's record saying 'Age won't improve it' 12 items	1922-1929
U DX82/12	Circular letter from Herbert B. Grotrian thanking supporters 1 item	29 Nov 1922
U DX82/13	Rough statement of election expenses of Herbert B. Grotrian 1 item	2 Dec 1922
U DX82/14	Christmas card from Mr & Mrs Herbert B. Grotrian Thanks recipients for their generous help in the recent election 1 item	1923
U DX82/15	Unionist election pamphlets Including one showing the cost of a loaf of bread has increased under the Socialists 11 items	1924
U DX82/16	Election address of John Arnott to the electors of South West Hull Printed address by the Labour candidate 1 item	18 Oct 1924
U DX82/17	Press cutting from 'The Daily Telegraph' relating to the correspondence between Herbert B. Grotrian and the Postmaster General on press telegrams 1 item	16 Oct 1926