

C BVM Records of the Guild of the Blessed Virgin Mary in 1463-1539
the Chapel of Holy Trinity, Hull

Historical Background: The Guild of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Chapel of Holy Trinity, Hull was the town's earliest parochial guild and had been founded in 1357. It held an annual mass on the Feast of the Assumption, 15th August.

Description: Account book

Extent: 1 volume

Related material: A detailed history of the guild can be found in the Journal of the Yorkshire Archaeological Society, volume 33 (1933-1936), pages 268-270, which can be located at reference L.9.4.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C BVM/1	Account book of the Guild of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Chapel of Holy Trinity, Hull 1 volume	27 Apr 1463- Jul 1539
---------	---	--------------------------