

C DBAJ Records of Andrew M. Jacksons and Co. 1834-1947
solicitors of Hull

Accession number: 13/08

Historical Background: Andrew Marvell Jackson, known as 'The Colonel' began working as a solicitor in Hull in 1874. His brother, Thomas Jackson, known as 'The Doctor' joined him as a partner in 1887 where the firm became known as Andrew Jackson & Co., the first to use the term '& Co.' For a more complete history please see their website.

Custodial history: Deposited at the Hull History Centre by Kevin Webster of Jacksons

Description: Obituary book (1834-1947); Magazine of the Hull Law Student Society (1890-1891) and a cartoon of a coroners court (1908).

Arrangement:	C DBAJ/1	Administrative records	1834-1947
	C DBAJ/2	Jacksons and the Hull Law Student Society	1890-1891
	C DBAJ/3	Miscellaneous records	1908

Extent: 1 volumes 4 items

Related material: Copies of Red Tape, the magazine of the Hull Law Students Society for the dates 1886-1889 can be located at reference L.340.7.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DBAJ/1	Administrative records of Andrew M. Jacksons and Co. 1 volume	1834-1947
C DBAJ/1/1	Obituary book for Andrew M. Jacksons and Co. solicitors Gives the date of death, where buried, the date of any will and if it was proved as well as any additional remarks. Indexed. 1 volume	1834-1947
C DBAJ/2	Andrew M. Jacksons and Co. and the Hull Law Student Society 3 items	1890-1891
C DBAJ/2/1	Red Tape, the magazine of the Hull Law Students Society Part IV No.1 1 item	Jan 1890
C DBAJ/2/2	Red Tape, the magazine of the Hull Law Students Society Part IV No.4 1 item	Oct 1890

Hull History Centre: Records of Andrew M. Jacksons and Co. solicitors of Hull

C DBAJ/2/3	Red Tape, the magazine of the Hull Law Students Society Part V No.1 1 item	Jan 1891
C DBAJ/3	Miscellaneous records of Andrew M. Jacksons and Co. solicitors 1 item	1908
C DBAJ/3/1	Cartoon of a coroners inquest Reprint of an 18th century original, commenting that even if the man is alive, if the doctor has declared him dead then the inquest must go ahead 1 item	1908