	Emanuel was opened in 1871 on a site between Morlet Street and Maxwell Street. St Johns replaced an earlier building of 1811 which stood on the northern side of the school in 1892. The two societies merged in 1961 and the Emanuel building was closed. To some extent new record books were introduced to reflect the creation of a new body but in others St. Johns books remained in use. The St. Johns and the post merger records have therefore been listed as a single series
