

Accession number: 25/18

Biographical Background: Kenneth Banham was born in Hull in 1899. His father John T. Banham (1862 - 1949) was a Master in the Merchant Navy. The recording covers Kenneth's childhood in Hull, his schooling, and stranding in Stockholm at the start of the First World War. The recording ends when he moves to London for work in the Civil Service.

Custodial history: The recording was taken in 1978 by Kenneth's son Philip M. Banham.

Extent: 75.2 mb

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

Copyright: HHC

C DI 8/1	Oral history of Kenneth Banham of Hull The content of the interview covers the period 1899-c.1915 75.2 mb	1978
C DI 8/2	Precis of the oral history of Kenneth Banham A summary of the oral history recording written by Kenneth's granddaughter 39.9 kb	2024