

C DIAE

Records relating to George Hubert Curtis

1913-1923

Accession number: 09/09

Biographical background: Mr George Hubert Curtis was born on 6 November 1897 and died on 16 February 1994. He was the eldest son of George and Alice Curtis of 5 Poplar Grove, Hull. His father was born in 1871 and was a corn porter and sworn weigher at Hull Docks. His father before him, Benjamin Curtis (born 1848) of 10 Clarence Terrace was also a corn porter.

Trained as a shipwright and boat builder, George Hubert worked on the small whaling boats which featured in a version of the film, 'Moby Dick'
He lived in Henly Drive, Southcoates Lane for much of his married life only moving to Southampton at the age of 87 to be close to his son's family.

Extent: 3 items

Access Conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIAE/1	Indenture between George Hubert Curtis and Mr William Wade, Shipwright and Boat Builder 1 item	1 Jan 1913
C DIAE/2	Copies of records relating to George Hubert Curtis on two sheets of A4: a photograph of George Hubert Curtis c.1916; photograph of George Hubert Curtis with colleagues c. 1914; Attestation document Jan 31 1916; reference 1923 2 items	c. 1914-1923