

C DIBL      Records relating to BBC broadcasting in Hull      1970s-2007

Historical Background: The British Broadcasting Corporation opened the Hull relay station, its sixth such station, in 1924, with an inaugural concert from the City Hall. Radio Humberside began broadcasting in 1972. BBC television's, Look North Yorkshire and Lincolnshire launched in 2002 splitting from the Leeds based BBC North, created in 1968.

Custodial History: Deposited by Basil Lewis, a local historian, who presented a segment on history for Radio Humberside in the 1970s and 1980s.

Description: Notes relating to the history of broadcasting in Hull and promotional material for BBC Radio Humberside and BBC television in Hull

Extent: ½ box

Related material: Other material relating to the BBC in Hull and the surrounding area can be accessed via the online catalogue and the library index cards

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIBL/1	Notes compiled by Basil Lewis relating to history of radio broadcasting in Hull 1 bundle	25 Feb 1992
C DIBL/2	Records relating to BBC Radio Humberside and BBC Yorkshire and Lincolnshire 3 bundles	1970s-2007
C DIBL/2/1	Promotional material for BBC Radio Humberside and BBC Look North Includes flyers, leaflets, stickers and photographs of various presenters 1 bundle	1970s-1990s
C DIBL/2/2	BBC Radio Humberside annuals and magazines With gaps 1 bundle	1978-2003
C DIBL/2/3	Programmes for concerts, pantomimes and sports events for BBC Radio Humberside and BBC Yorkshire and Lincolnshire 1 bundle	1984-2007