

C DICN Letters from Olive Metcalfe to her husband 1939-2007
during the Second World War

Accession number: 07/28

Historical Background: The letters were written by Olive Metcalfe to her husband Christopher, Kit, during the Second World War and tell of life in Hull during this period. The letters have been edited and transcribed by their daughter, Dr. Christine Nicholls.

Custodial history: The copy letters were edited and transcribed by Dr. Christine Nicholls, Olive and Christopher's daughter Description: Transcript of letters written by Olive Metcalfe to her husband, Christopher during The Second World War whilst he was on active service. Includes family history information and a photograph of both Olive and Christopher taken during the period. Also available in electronic format on CD-ROM.

Extent: 2 boxes

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader. To access the CD-ROM please see a member of staff

Copyright: Remains with Dr. Nicholls

C DICN/1	Transcript of letters Transcript of letters written by Olive Metcalfe to her husband Christopher whilst away on active service during The Second World War. Includes family history information and a photograph of both Olive and Christopher taken during the period 3 vols	Sep 1939- Feb 1942
C DICN/1/1	Transcript of letters Includes copy photographs and a family history 1 vol	5 Sep 1939- 6 Jun 1940
C DICN/1/2	Transcript of letters 1 vol	7 Jun 1940- 3 Jan 1941
C DICN/1/3	Transcript of letters 1 vol	4 Jan 1941- 10 Feb 1942
C DICN/2	CD-ROM containing transcripts of letters See DICN/1 for description 1 item	Sep 1939- Feb 1942