

C DIDD

Diary Written by Mrs Dora Dean

1940-1941

Accession Number: 12/43

Historical Background: Written by Mrs Dora Dean detailing her life during the war period, January 1940-June 1941. Mrs Dean was married to Arthur Dean, Deputy Librarian of Hull Central Library and lived at 16 Pulford Road, Hessle.

Custodial History: Deposited by Mr Jim Kelley in September 2012. Mr Kelley bought what he thought was a novel, as the diary is covered in the sleeve of 'The Adventures of Tom Sawyer', in a second hand charity shop in Hessle during his time as a student in Hull in the 1960s.

C DIDD/1

Diary Written by Dora Dean

Jan 1940-Jul 1941

Mrs Dean's observations on her day to day life and events happening both in the local area and abroad during the Second World War. There is a gap between June 23rd and July 14th 1941. Includes a quote from the King's Xmas Speech 1939 and other snippets of information under 'Miscellaneous Items' at the back of the volume.
1 volume