C DIDI Photographs of pupils and staff at Greatfield High School, Hull

1958-c.1960s

Accession number: 17/40

Historical Background: Greatfield School opened in 1957, an example of the tripartite educational system. It had three halls: Shakespeare Hall (a grammar school), Newton Hall, (a technical school) and Elizabeth Hall (a secondary modern school). There was further reorganisation in 1969 and again in 1988. The first headmaster was Malcolm Richard Henry Innes, fl.1957-1973.

Custodial history: Deposited at the History Centre in Agust 2017 by David Innes, son of the first headmaster, Malcolm Innes

Description: Photographs of pupils and staff at Greatfield High School, Hull

Extent: 1 volume and 2 items

Related material: The main series of additional records relating to Greatfield High School held by the History Centre can be found within C DEDL. These include: Admission and Withdrawal records (1957-2002) at C DEDL/1/2; Photographs (1957-1997) at C DEDL/2/2 and scrapbooks and school magazines (1957-2009) at C DEDL/3-4. Some of these records will be closed under data protection legislation. Please see staff regarding access conditions. Subject Plans for the buildings are located with C TAL/60 and C TAER/4/1/34 with other photographs at Lp.373/Gre. The East Riding of Yorkshire Archives also holds records relating the Greatfield High School which can be located a reference SL218.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIDI/1	Album of	photographs	of staff and	class grou	ps and the	Jul 1958

building at Greatfield High School, Hull Signed by the headmaster, Malcolm Innes

1 volume

C DIDI/2 Whole school photograph of pupils and staff at Early 1960s

Greatfield High School, Hull

1 item

C DIDI/3 Whole school photograph of pupils and staff at Mid 1960s

Greatfield High School, Hull

1 item