C DIEV Records collected by Dorothy Watson, former teacher and headmistress in Hull. relating to the central government scheme for the evacuation of the homeless and the allocation of teacher volunteers 29 Jan 1941-30 Oct 1944

Accession number: 22/4

Biographical Background: Dorothy Watson was a teacher and former headmistress in Hull and taught at Thorsby and Wheeler Street Schools

Custodial history: These records belonged to the depositor's great aunt, Dorothy Watson. The depositor was Ms Jennifer Cassidy of Buckingham

Description: 1 bundle of correspondence relating to the scheme for the government evacuation of the homeless which includes government circulars, Hull Education Committee memorandums and instructions about what colleges and schools should do in the event of an invasion, allocation of duty rotas, transport information and instructions for the reception of evacuees issued by Flaxton Rural District Council.

Extent: 1 bundle

Related material: C TED/1/1/6 Financial adjustments relating to evacuated children during the Second World War 1939-1947, C TFES Government Evacuation Scheme 1939-1945 & C TLW/W/1/8 Evacuation 1941-1942

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIEV/1 1 bundle of correspondence relating to the 29 Jan 1941scheme for the government evacuation of the 30 Oct 1944 homeless which includes government circulars, Hull Education Committee memorandums and instructions about what colleges and schools should do in the event of an invasion, allocation of duty rotas, transport information and instructions for the reception of evacuees issued by Flaxton Rural District Council. 1 item