

Hull History Centre: Items relating to Winifred Holtby deposited by her god-daughter

C DIFA Items relating to Winifred Holtby deposited by her god-daughter.
c. 1916-2011

Accession number: 11/70

Custodial history: The hymn book was given by Holtby to the depositor. The other items were collected by the depositor.

Description: Hymn book previously belonging to Winifred and given to her god-daughter (the depositor), flyer for a calendar 1939 with art work by Claire Leighton, and a recent article from a Bridlington based magazine about Holtby.

Extent: 3 items

Related material: L. WH

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIFA/1	Children's Hymn Book with Tunes once belonging to Winifred Holtby and given to her god-daughter. Winifred has signed the inside of the hymn book and put the date 1916. 1 Item	N.D.
C DIFA/2	Flyer for a calendar of Winifred's 'Letters to a Friend' compiled by Mary Tyreman with artwork by Clare Leighton. Clare Leighton was the sister of Roland Leighton who was engaged to Vera Brittain and killed in the First World War. 1 item	1939
C DIFA/3	Article about Winifred's early life at Queen Margaret's School, Scarborough. Also includes a reprint of her article 'An eyewitness account of the bombardment of Scarborough in 1914' which was published locally during 1916. 1 item	c. 2011