

C DIGM                      Photographs of Hull trawlers                      1912-mid 20th cent.

Accession number: 13/61

Historical Background/Biographical Background: Photographs taken as a record of the trawlers and the crew. The Cape Spartel was built in the 1930s and was lost in 1942 on Admiralty Service. The Cape Adair and Cape Coubia were built in the 1950s and operated until the late 1960s. All tree cape vessels were owned by Hudsons.

Custodial history: These photographs used to hang on the walls of the Ye Olde Blue Bell in Hull home to the Union One Folk Club. They were removed when the club closed and were passed to the History Centre by long time folk club member, Steve Gardham.

Extent: 4 items

Related material: For more details on these vessels please see the Hull Shipping Registers at C DPC. The information can be accessed through the card index in the History Centre searchroom.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIGM/1	Photograph of the crew of the St. Ely 1 item	1912
C DIGM/2	Photographs of the trawlers Cape Spartel, Cape Adair and Cape Coubia 1 item	mid 20th cent.