

C DIGO      Sales catalogue for Spring Head Hall, Anlaby, Hull      1870

Accession number: 10/63

Historical Background: The building is first mentioned in 1676 and is one of the oldest in Anlaby. It was sometimes called the White House. Samuel Lighfoot, a Hull solicitor who had substantial dealings with the Hull Dock Company lived in the house until around 1867. Edward Burwell lived there from 1872. In 1929 Hull City Council bought the estate and the building has since been used as the club house for Springhead Golf Club

Custodial history: Passed to the depositor by a correspondent on the family history website RootsTalk

Extent: 1 item

Related material: For records relating to Samuel Lighfoot see under C DFL and C DMX/296. The City Council's minutes for the Parks and Burials Committee will include details of the golf club

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIGO/1      Sales catalogue for Spring Head Hall, Anlaby, Hull      19-20 Sep 1870
1 item