

Hull History Centre: Print of a pencil drawing of an interior of a Hull chapel

C DIHM Print of a pencil drawing of an interior of a Hull chapel 1967

Accession number: 16/49

Biographical Background: Signature at the bottom of the drawing is that of Mollie Hillam. This may be the Mollie Hillam (1942-1990) who was a noted ceramic artist and who founded the Fulneck Pottery, Leeds.

Custodial history: Passed to the History Centre in December 2016 by J.R. White

Description: Internal view of a chapel, signed Mollie Hillam

Extent: 1 item

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIHM /1	Print of a pencil drawing of an interior of a Hull chapel, by Mollie Hillam 1 item	1967
-----------	--	------