

C DIIN Research records collected by Mallard Edward Ingram, Historian, in the course of his lifetime 1785-1980

Accession number: 16/21

Historical Background: Mallard Edward Ingram was born in Hull on 17 Jan 1912. His Father was Mallard Henry Ingram from Wath upon Dearne, Yorkshire and his Mother was Rebecca Page from Bottesford, Leicestershire (1911 census states that the family lived at 30 Rosemead Street, Newbridge Road, Hull). He studied at the University College of Hull and became a teacher in Bridlington. He was also a historian and author with a particular interest in Churches, transport and architecture.

He wrote or co-wrote the following books:

- 'The Maisters of Kingston upon Hull, 1560-1840 : portrait of a merchant family' illustrated by Francis F. Johnson L.920MAI (1983)
- 'The Church of St. Mary-the-virgin, Hull-History' L.283 S MARY (1948)
'Drypool' L.9.82 (1959)
- 'Our Lady of Hull' L.283 S MAR (1948)
- 'Leaves from a family tree, being the correspondence of an East Riding Family.' L.920 GRI (date unknown)
- 'The Manor of Bridlington and its Lords Feoffees' illustrated by Francis F. Johnson L.9.54 BR (1977)
- 'Drypool : being the history of the ancient parish of Drypool cum Southcoates. [with illustrations.]' L.9.82 (1960)
- 'The Hull and Barnsley Railway / edited by K Hoole. Vol 1 / by M Edward Ingram [et al]' L.385.11 (1972)

He was active in a number of societies and it was through attendance at meetings of the Augustinian Society that, in December 1936, Edward met his life-long partner, Francis Frederick Johnson, an Architect highly respected in his field, renowned for his traditional and classical work.

Together they lived at Craven House, 16 High Street, Bridlington, Leys House, Sewerby and eventually at Reighton Hall, nr Filey. Edward had a sister, Dorothy Edith, who lived with them until her death in 1988.

From the late 1930s both Edward and Francis (aka Ted and Jim) became very much involved in campaigns to protect Bridlington's 'Old Town'.

Francis Johnson died in hospital at Leeds on the 29 September 1995. Edward died in a nursing home on 19 December 1997, aged 85 years. He and Francis have a joint gravestone in Reighton Churchyard which simply reads 'Francis Frederick Johnson Architect' and below 'Mallard Edward Ingram Historian'.

Custodial history: The items in this collection were collected by Mallard Edward Ingram whilst preparing his various books. They were inherited, after Edward's death in Dec 1997, by Mr Anthony E. Ingram whose father was Edward's cousin. He subsequently gave them to the History Centre in May 2016

Description: Scrap books, research notes, photograph albums and correspondence relating to the History of Hull and the East Riding

Extent: 12 volumes, 2 bundles

Related material: Other material is held by the University Archives in the Francis F. Johnson collection (U DFJ) and Edward Ingram's research into the Maister Family can be found at C DMI. Most of Edward Ingram's published books are also available at the History Centre. Please search for individual titles using our online catalogue.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIIN/1	Volume of news cuttings (un-indexed) Includes articles about Hull's floods, the demolition of St Stephen's Church tower, the closure of Drypool Bridge and the opening of the new Drypool Bridge, a new look for Paragon Station, the clearing of the old Hedon Road Cemetery, the consecration of the new St Columba's Church, Holderness Road, a plan for a new museum on Queen's Gardens, Dairycoates flyover and the closure of the Assembly Rooms on Kingston Square 1 volume	12 Nov 1954- 8 Jun 1961
C DIIN/2	Volume of news cuttings (indexed) Includes many articles relating to Hull and East Riding churches and local architecture in general 1 volume	Sep 1961- Oct 1966
C DIIN/3	Volume of news cuttings (un-indexed) Includes articles relating to the election of Assistant Lord Feoffees in Bridlington, (please note that M. Edward Ingram was one of those elected and Francis F. Johnson was Chief Lord of the Manor of Bridlington at the time. Ingram also wrote a book entitled 'The Manor of Bridlington and its Lords Feoffees' in 1977) clearing of the Hull General Cemetery, the restoration of Holy Trinity Church, Hull Tramways, Lord Duveen, plans to fill in the Princes Dock, the demolition of the Newland Congregational Church, Queens Hall Methodist Church, Hull Royal Infirmary on Prospect Street and Field's Cafe on Savile Street 1 volume	Dec 1966- Nov 1977
C DIIN/4	Volume of news cuttings (un-indexed) Includes articles relating to the early history of Hull and Bridlington, William Wilberforce, the history of congregationalism, the Royal Institution, the Land of Green Ginger and railways. Also in this volume there are a number of artist sketches of : Radcliffe's Hospital, Dagger Lane Harrison's Hospital, Chapel Lane	c. 1946-1959

Ellis' Hospital, Salthouse Lane
Crowle's Hospital, Sewer Lane

Gregg's Hospital, Posterngate
Foxes' Hospital, Chapel Lane
Staircase in the Old Almshouses, South
Churchside
1 volume

C DIIN/5	Volume of news cuttings (un-indexed) This volume records the events of Rupert Alec-Smith's Mayoral year. Rupert Alec-Smith was the founder of the Georgian Society for East Yorkshire. Edward Ingram and his partner, Francis Johnson were both members. They had a life-long association with both Alec-Smith and the Georgian Society. The two of them were invited to several events during the year by the Mayor and his wife. Invitations and menus for these occasions are in the back of this volume. There is also an invitation from the High Sheriff of Humberside, Mr Richard Marriott, to two events and an order of service dated 2nd May 1971 for Hessle Parish Church and the dedication of St Barnabas Chapel 1 volume	Jun 1970- May 1971
C DIIN/6	Notebook of research on the Hull, Barnsley and West Riding Junction Railway and Dock Company M. Edward Ingram co-wrote a book in 1972 entitled 'The Hull and Barnsley Railway Vol 1' edited by K Hoole. L385.11 (1972) 1 volume	c. 1972
C DIIN/7	Photograph Album of some of the Hull and Barnsley Railway stock Includes a Hull & Barnsley Railway old boy's reunion photograph dated 19 Oct 1910 and photographs relating to the opening of King George Dock, 1914. The origins of the album is unknown though Edward Ingram's Father, Mallard Henry Ingram is believed to have worked for the Hull and Barnsley Railway Co as a Clerk (1911 census) 1 volume	c. 1900
C DIIN/8	Notebook (un-indexed) This notebook starts as a journal of Mr. Ingram's travels during a particular summer (July) and changes into research notes primarily about churches in Hull and the East Riding 1 volume	n.d.

Hull History Centre: Research records collected by Mallard Edward Ingram, Historian

C DIIN/9	Notebook (un-indexed) This notebook contains research notes primarily relating to medieval vicars in the Hull and East Riding with a large section devoted to St. Mary's Lowgate. This research was probably done in preparation for his two books on St. Mary's 1 volume	c. 1948
C DIIN/10	Notebook (indexed) This notebook contains a large section of research notes on St. Mary's, Lowgate as well as East Riding Churches and the will of John Constable of Halsham. There are also notes on East Riding ministers at the time of the English Civil War. It is clear from the notes that a great deal of his research was carried out at the East Riding Archive Service in Beverley and at the Borthwick Institute in York 1 volume	n.d.
C DIIN/11	Notebook (un-indexed) This notebook contains a research notes on Drypool with many references to records in the East Riding Archive Service, Beverley. This research was probably done in preparation for his book on Drypool in 1959 1 volume	c. 1959
C DIIN/12	Album of photographs This album contains photographs primarily of St. Mary's Church, Lowgate (external and internal). On the back page is a picture of Ferriby old church. 1 volume	n.d.
C DIIN/13	Envelope containing a bundle of letters and other notes relating to the history of St Mary's Church, Lowgate Some of the later letters are written to Edward Ingram from clergymen regarding the history of St Mary's Church, Lowgate. Others are from L.M. Stanewell, keeper of Hull' s records at the Guildhall. The earlier letters are written to John Bilson from various people with an interest in St Marys, Lowgate. John Bilson (1858–1943) is best known for his architectural research on the medieval period. All of the letters appear to give information concerning the personalities associated with St Mary's throughout history. There is a list of churchwardens from 1640-1848 1 bundle	1913-1961

C DIIN/14	Bundle of letters, copy letters and notes relating to the Grimston Militia Edward Ingram conducted this research for a book entitled 'Leaves from a family tree, being the correspondence of an East Riding Family.' (date unknown). John Grimston was a prominent member of the East Riding landowning Grimston family of Grimston Garth and Kilnwick. He was very active in the local militia. The East Riding Archives holds the Grimston family papers at reference DDGR. The University of Hull also has some papers of the Grimston Family of Grimston Garth and Neswick 1625-1891 at reference U DGN The copies of the Grimston letters were made by Ingram from originals held by Lady Waechter de Grimston of Hall Garth, Goodmanham 1 bundle	1785-1955
-----------	--	-----------