

Hull History Centre: Diary recording dates and information relating to Zeppelin and air raids during the First and Second World Wars

C DIJI	Diary recording dates and information relating to Zeppelin and air raids during the First and Second World Wars	c.1874-c.1958
---------------	--	----------------------

Accession number: 24/30

Custodial history: Deposited by Janet Bielby in August 2024

Description: The diary contains passages from the bible but has been used to note birthdays but also records the dates of Zeppelin/air raids with brief details, including the numbers killed, though numbers are not noted with each entry. Each note is usually just a sentence. Includes entry noting the outbreak of war on 4 August 1914.

Extent: 1 item/ 0.04 linear metres

Related material: C TSH/2/5 are City Engineers photographs showing damage sustained during Zeppelin raids on 6/7 June 1915. The Local Studies Library has published material relating to Hull in the First and Second World Wars at reference L.9.7083 and L.9.7085. Bomb damage maps are available in the History Centre search room. For Hull's records relating to the Second World War please consult the History Centre online catalogue <https://catalogue.hullhistorycentre.org.uk/>

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIJI/1	Diary 1 item	c.1874-c.1958
----------	-----------------	---------------