

C DIJM Records relating to Miss Frances Westerdale,
Headmistress of Constable Street Primary School 1919-
1941

Accession number: 11/18

Biographical history: Frances Westerdale was headmistress of the Constable Street Primary School and had served under the Hull Education Authority for 47 years. She retired from the position of Head teacher at the Constable Street Girl's School on 31 August 1941.

Custodial history: Deposited by Jeanne Mundy in March 2011

Description: Includes a photograph and award certificate of Miss Frances Westerdale and a small photograph album of children at Newland Homes

Extent: 6 items, 1 volume

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIJM/1	Certificate awarded to Miss Frances Westerdale, Headmistress of Constable Street Primary School For the appreciation of her "faithful and valuable services" 1 item	1941
C DIJM/2	Photograph of Miss Frances Westerdale 1 item	c.1930
C DIJM/3	Small photograph album of children at the Newland Homes Orphanage Also includes four loose photographs, which include one of a group of children with a placard titled 'Top Scholars July 1919', two photographs of a group of young children, and one photograph of a Miss Tomlinson, Miss Jackson, and Miss Lewis having a picnic 1 volume, 4 items	1919- c.1930s