

C DILA Material relating to Hull's Fishing Industry 1917-1996

Accession number: 15/30

Custodial history: Passed to Hull History Centre by Mr. Alfred Louth, given to him by various individuals connected to the Edinburgh Street Community Centre, Hessle Road, Hull

Description: Skipper's wage slips, Liferaft, Fire and Emergency Station Card for the Kingston Sapphire 1975, several fishing publications, stores lists and volume relating to Hudson's Trawler Owner's giving details of pensions to employers, dyeing costs and net manufacture as well as copy photographs of the Gamecock Fishing Fleet

Extent: 0.01m3

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DILA/1	Papers relating to Hull's Fishing Industry Includes correspondence relating to refrigerating machinery on board ships, operational problems, the testing of fish by the Humber Laboratory; a bundle of receipts from the Hull Fishing Vessel Owners Association Limited, Fishermen's Outfitting Department goods required; Net value account sheets for voyages; minutes of meeting of directors of Seakold Ltd, 11 April 1969; a report on Fine Fair Holdings ten year plan; notes on accounts for the 12 weeks ended 23rd May 1969; statistics of the number of fish caught by different fishing companies; and a photocopy of War Risks voluntary compensation granted to Mrs. Ada Jackson following the death of her husband, John Francis Jackson, who worked on the ship Sebastian 1 bundle/40 items	17 Apr 1917- 16 Jul 1970
C DILA/2	Volume relating to Hudson's Trawler Owner's Giving details of pensions to employers, dyeing costs and net manufacture. The pages have been removed from the ring-binder leather covered volume as the metal was beginning to rust and was covered in mould 1 item
C DILA/3	Liferaft, Fire and Emergency Station Card for the Kingston Sapphire Skipper is A. E. Start 1 item	18 Oct 1975

Hull History Centre: Material relating to Hull's Fishing Industry

C DILA/4	Printed copies of photographs of the Gamecock Fishing Fleet Photographs include those of the ship the Gamecock transferring fish to the cutter to be taken to London fish market, crew members working on board the ship, skipper Admiral Foot and his dog 1 bundle/20 items	Early 1900s
C DILA/5	Publications Includes the Humber Fishermen's Pension Scheme: explanatory booklet, the St. Andrew's Dock heritage programme, illustrated catalogue of the museum of fisheries and shipping, Hessle Road magazine, St. Andrew's High School magazine with a section on ships and shipping. Also includes dialling codes and call charges for the Hull telephone area in 1964, a monthly programme for August 1929 for the Tower cinema and cafe, and a coronation souvenir book for 1937 9 items	1929-1996