

C DILR Papers of Michael Murphy regarding his 1887-1898
voyages on the ships Thistlebank and Castlebank

Accession number: 11/02

Custodial history: Deposited by Michael Murphy's Great-neice Mrs Linda Randerson in December 2010

Extent: 120 items

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DILR/1	Papers of Michael Murphy regarding his voyages on the ships Thistlebank and Castlebank The collection mainly consists of numerous letters, the majority of which are written by Michael Murphy to his parents detailing his time spent on the ships the Thistlebank and the Castlebank, dated July 1891-September 1896, transcripts of the letters are included on CD-ROM. Also included are a notification from Hull Trinity House of the examination for the admission of boys to the school, certificates from Hull Trinity House recommending Michael Murphy for service at sea, dated 26 August 1891, as well as memorandum providing details of arrival times and locations of the two ships, photographs, receipts, and a small number of papers relating to Thomas Murphy. 120 items	1887-1898
----------	--	-----------