

C DIMO Merchant Navy records of John Albert (Jack) Morley 1940-1964

Accession Number: 14/39

Biographical Background: Known as Jack Morley, John was born in Hull and in 1940 he joined UK merchant navy as a seaman, leaving in 1964.

Custodial History: Deposited by the daughter of Jack Morley, Glynis Nendick in July 2014.

Description: Seaman's Card and Record Book and Certificates of Discharge

Related Material: Morley also featured in the book 'Merchant Navy Apprentice at War' by Neil Carson, available in the library area. Other records for members of the merchant navy can be found The National Archives at Kew.

Extent: 4 items

Access Conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIMO/1	Continuous Certificate of Discharge book for John Morley 1 item	10 Oct 1952
C DIMO/2	Certificates issued to John Morley Includes certificates of discharge, attendance at a fire fighters course and Mercantile Marine Gunners' Course certificates of proficiency 1 item	8 Aug 1942- 21 Feb 1964
C DIMO/3	Seamen's Record book and Certificate of Discharge for John Morley 1 item	18 Jun 1952
C DIMO/4	British Seamen's Card issued to John Morley 1 item	11 Feb 1961- 29 Mar 1963