

C DIOS Drawing of the Prudential Building, Hull 1941
during the Second World War following an air raid

Accession number: 12/66

Historical Background: Created in response to events of May 1941

Custodial history: Deposited by Mr. Gary Coe in November 2012

Description: The drawing is entitled 'King Edward Street Dawn 8th May 1941'. It is signed by the artist, Oliver and dated

Extent: 1 item

Related material: For more on the events during this raid and Hull during the second World War in general, see 'A North east Coast Town' by T. Geraghty. Other records relating to this raid please can be found at C DMX/29/7, C TYA/12-13, C TYW/2/3/5-6, C TLW/W/1/1/6/3, C TLW/W/1/12/11 and C DIRI/1/2

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader. On display in the library area.

C DIOS/1	Drawing of the Prudential Building during the Second World War following an air raid On display in the library area 1 item	5 Aug 1941
----------	---	------------