Photograph Albums of Wyke Hall Junior High School.
1967-1973

Administrative history: In 1957 Kelvin Hall and Wyke Hall, Bricknell High Schools were housed in one building on Grammar School Road. In 1959 a new school was built that fronted Bricknell Avenue which became Kelvin Hall's new premises. The two schools progressed in active partnership and cooperation for some years until Hull implemented its Comprehensive Education system. Wyke Hall then became Wyke Junior High School catering for children aged 9-13. Kelvin Hall catered for children aged 13-18. In 1988 Wyke Junior High School became a 6th form college (Wyke Sixth Form College) and Kelvin Hall became a secondary school for children aged 11-16.

Custodial history: These yearly albums were originally presented to former headmaster, S.Leslie Rowland B.A. and given to Hull City Archives by his son. Leslie Rowland was born in Tadcaster in 1914 and came to Hull to teach at Hall Road Primary School after the Second World War. He later spent thirteen years as the headmaster of Fountain Road Boy's School. He then moved to Wyke hall, Bricknell High School for sixteen years and took early retirement in 1976. He was a keen sportsman and as such was a leading figure in both Hull Schools Cricket and Football Associations. After his retirement he served on Hull City Council and Humberside County Council. At the time of his death he was the Deputy Chairman of the Humberside Education Committee. He died in 1979.
