

C DISV

Diary of War Raids in Hull

1939-1944

Accession number: 12/16

Historical Background: Compiled by Captain Barron of Anlaby High Road, Hull as a running record of the events during the time period

Custodial history: Deposited by S V Carrick, whose great aunt was Captain Barron's housekeeper

Description: Diary of air raids in Hull

Extent: 1 volume

Related material: Hull History Centre has many other records relating to the Second World War and has produced an information sheet which is available on our website. In addition, a history of the war in Hull can be found in Geraghty's book 'A North-East Coast Town'.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DISV/1

Diary of War Raids in Hull
1 volume

4 Sep 1939-
29 Dec 1944