Hull History Centre: Records collected by Mr Symmes relating to baseball in Hull

C DISY Records collected by Mr Symmes relating to baseball in Hull

1937-1976

Accession number: 17/39

Historical Background: Baseball had been first introduced to the United Kingdom in the 1890s, although it hit a peak, particularly in Hull, during the 1930's, with a team from Hull becoming national champions in 1937. Baseball continues to be played in the Hull area.

Custodial history: Collected by the husband of Lindsay Symmes in the course of his research and deposited at the History Centre in August 2017

Description: Bulletins and year books

Extent: 5 items

Related material: Additional material, including programmes for clubs such as the Hull Aces and rules for the game, can be located at L.796.357. Please see the online and card index catalogues for more details. The project for chronicling the history of British baseball has a website at http://www.projectcobb.org.uk

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DISY/1	Hull Amateur Baseball League official handbook Handwritten note included to say it was found in Regent Street after the blitz in 1941 1 item	1937
C DISY/2	Hull District Amateur Baseball League final standings 1 item	1949
C DISY/3	Southern Baseball League handbook 1 item	1953
C DISY/4	Hull Baseball Gazette The official organ of the Hull Amateur Baseball League, number 3 1 item	Jul 1952
C DISY/5	Baseball Mercury Number 12. Baseball news from Humberside and elsewhere 1 item	Apr 1976