

C DITW

Photograph of the 'Merry England' cast made up of men from the Rescue Services

1943

Accession number: 13/26

Historical Background/Biographical Background: 'Merry England' was performed at the Hull New Theatre for two weeks in 1943 and the cast was made up men from the rescue services.

Custodial history: The photograph was inherited and deposited by Mr. Terrence Willoughby in April 2013

Extent: 1 item

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DITW/1

Photograph of the 'Merry England' cast made up of men from the Rescue Services
John Alfred George Willoughby, worked for the St. John Ambulance and is positioned on the front row third from the right.
1 item

1943