

C DIXJ War time letter sent to Joan Stanley of Fleetwood 1941

Accession number: 17/28

Historical Background: There were several air raids on Hull in March 1941, many of which were particularly intense. This letter, written by a teacher in Hull, called Joan (surname unknown) to her friend Joan Stanley, highlights the nature of these raids and her own observations.

Custodial history: Passed to the Hull Local Studies Library in March 2009 by local historian, John Markham, who had received the letter from Paul Leather, executor to Joan Stanley. Transferred to City Archives in June 2017.

Description: Letter sent by Joan [?] of Hull to Joan Stanley describing an air raid in Hull and her subsequent evacuation to Etton Camp

Extent: 1 item

Related material: Hull History Centre has many records relating to World War Two, including raid files, outlining the course of each air raid. Please see our source guide at www.hullhistorycentre.org.uk for more details.

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader

C DIXJ/1	Letter sent to Joan Stanley of Fleetwood by Joan [?] at Etton Camp, near Beverley 1 item	24 Mar 1941
----------	--	-------------