Photographs of Hull Cycling Club

c.1890-c.1910

Accession number: 12/27

Historical Background/Biographical Background: Hull Cycling Club is known to have held various road races in the 1890s, including races to Bridlington. It is unclear whether the Hull Cycling Club is related to the Hull Bicycle Club, which was founded in 1876. The photographs were found by Edward Waterson in an empty house in Hessle, where they were about to be discarded in c.1977. The name of the original owner of the photographs is unknown (the house was a 1920s/30s house on the opposite side of the road to the Cemetery).

Custodial history: Deposited by Mr Edward Waterson in July 2011. Items passed to the City Archive by University staff in May 2012.

Description: Photographs of members of Hull Cycling Club members in various locations.

Extent: 13 items

Related material: Hull Local Studies Library holds the records of Cyclists' Touring Club: Hull & East Riding District Association, 1925-1994 (Ref L DSCT) and the Minute Book for Hull Cyclists', 1882-1884 (Ref L DSCY) which details a series of meetings by representatives of five cycling clubs in Hull to organise an annual race meeting in the city. Hull Museums also hold a badge for Hull Cycling Club.

The Hull University Archives also include papers relating to the Rational Dress Movement and Cycling for Women (Ref U DX113).
