

C TBE Recordings of performances at the City Hall, Hull 1982-1986

Accession number: 51/94

Historical Background: Work building the hall began in 1900 and by 1909 it was in use. 1911 saw the installation of the organ. It was badly damaged by an air raid in 1941 which resulted in its closure until 1950 when it reopened. The next year, 1951, saw a new organ installed

Custodial history: Transferred to City Archives by Leisure Services

Description: Audio cassettes of performances from the Hull Grammar School and composer and organist, Francis Jackson, has been Organist Emeritus of York Minster and a past president of the Royal College of Organists

Extent: 2 items

Related material: For details of the Hull Grammar School anniversary event see the main series of records at C DEHG. Other records relating to the organ at the hall can be found at L DBFA, the records of Forster and Andrews, organ builders and C DBGH, the papers of Rev'd Canon F.G. Hunter, organ consultant for the refurbishment of the organ at Hull City Hall

Access conditions: Access will be granted to any accredited reader. To listen to these items please contact staff to arrange an appointment

Copyright: Copyright for C TBE/1/2 lies with Amphlion Stereo Sound Recordings

C TBE/1	Audio cassette recordings of performances at the City Hall, Hull	1982-1986
	2 items
C TBE/1/1	Audio cassette recording of '500 Years Have Rolled Away' performed at the City Hall, Hull A souvenir of the 500th anniversary in 1979 of the endowment of the Hull Grammar School. Introduced by Peter Woods, old boy and BBC newsreader	1982
	1 item
C TBE/1/2	Audio cassette recording of 'The Composer Plays: Francis Jackson, organ music' performed at the City Hall, Hull A selection of compositions for the organ, composed between 1944-1984 and some recorded for the first time	1986
	1 item	